Award for Malladi Brothers

The Indira Sivasailam Foundation invites application for 'Anwesha'

NT Bureau

Chennai, Sept 18:

The sixth Indira Sivasailam Endowment Medal will be conferred on the Malladi Brothers - Malladi Sreerama Prasad and Malladi Ravikumar.

According to a press release, the Indira Sivasailam Foundation every year recognises an outstanding Carnatic musician based on an established set of criteria, which includes excellence in performance, audience appeal, adherence to classical tradition while innovating within its framework, depth of knowledge and demonstrated efforts to disseminate knowledge and the ability to bring about a greater and deeper public appreciation of Carnatic music.

The artist is selected by a panel comprising of members from the Endowments Committee of The Music Academy, Madras and TAFE Limited chairperson Mallika Srinivasan (daughter of Amalgamation Limited former chairman A Sivasailam and Indira Sivasailam).

The Malladi Brothers, renowned for their vibrant, mesmerizing voices and their extensive repertoire of Thyagaraja kritis and rare Carnatic compositions hail from a family of musicians from Andhra Pradesh, and inherit music from their grandfather Malladi Rama Murthy, a noted harikatha exponent of his time.

Malladi Brothers chosen for Indira Sivasailam Endowment Medal

Chennai, Sept 18: Sri. Malladi Sreerama Prasad and Sri. Malladi Ravikumar, popularly known as the Malladi Brothers has been chosen for the sixth Indira Sivasailam Endowment Medal and Concert.

The sixth Indira Sivasailam Endowment Concert will be held at The Music Academy in Chennai on October 9 marking the beginning of Navaratri season.

The artist is selected by a panel comprising of members from the Endowments Committee of The Music Academy, Madras, and Smt. Mallika Srinivasan (Chairman -- TAFE Limited), daughter of Late A. Sivasailam (Former Chairman - Amalgamations Limited) and the Late Indira Sivasailam.

Every year, the Indira Sivasailam Endowment Fund recognizes an outstanding Carnatic musician based on an established set of criteria.

The Indira Sivasailam Foundation was established by Ms. Mallika Srinivasan in the memory of her mother, whose deep-rooted conviction was to uphold and promote India's rich heritage by preserving and propagating its various art forms.

The Malladi Brothers, renowned for their vibrant, mesmerizing voices and their extensive repertoire of Thyagaraja kritis and rare Carnatic compositions hail from a family of musicians from Andhra Pradesh, and inherit music from their grandfather Late Malladi Sri. Rama Murthy, a noted harikatha exponent of his time. They received their initial training from their father Malladi Suri Babu, a Senior Vidwan of Andhra Pradesh and an illustrious disciple of Late Voleti Venkateswarulu, a legendary musician of great repute.

Since 2010, renowned musicians such as Sudha Ragunathan, Sanjay Sub-rahmanyam, Aruna Sairam, Bombay Jayashri Ramnath and T.M. Krishna have been conferred this honour.

Anwesha

The third season of 'Anwesha' organized this year invites Carnatic music enthusiasts to send in questions related to Carnatic music, of which the best ones will be shortlisted by the contest jury from The Music Academy, Madras.

The top 30 finalists will be invited for an interactive Q&A session with the Malladi Brothers, the winners of this year's Indira Sivasailam Endowment Medal.

This is a unique opportunity for Carnatic music enthusiasts to meet and interact with one of the most celebrated and accomplished artists of this generation.

The contest closes on September 26, 2015.
